

Instructions for donations of stock / marketable securities to

Plast Conference, Inc.

Once you have determined that a donation of marketable securities is desired, there are a couple things you need to know. Your current account custodian will require information to transfer securities. They all have various methods of providing them with instructions to make the transfer. They can include online requests, paper form or a letter of instruction. You should contact your current account service department to verify their procedures.

They will all require the following information to make the transfer:

Custodian:	Pershing LLC One Pershing Plaza Jersey City, NJ 07399 Account Transfers (888)-367-2563
DTCC #	0443
Account Holder:	Plast Conference, Inc.
Account Number:	PP8469858
